Massachusetts Bay

Made up of the Cape Cod, Greater Providence, Metro West, North Shore, and Southeast districts

Hi there,

It was great to see so many of you this month! We have a lot of orientations – both Pre- Return for our hosted students, and Pre Departure for our sending students coming up. If you are interested in getting involved please reach out to me or your district rep!

My best,

Noelle

Sending

We are doing well with our sending numbers!

Many Global Prep (2-3 week long summer programs) still have spots available! Programs to twenty countries – including Colombia, the Czech Republic, Ghana, Hungary, Japan, Nepal, and even New Zealand have spots remaining! Students have until June 15th to apply to these programs and can get their application fee waived.

Hosting

Check out these bios of available students! Feel free to share them with those you know!

Meet Irenej
from Slovenia

Gender: Male
Age (at arrival): 16 years
Program length: Year

Irenej is very successful in school. Teachers praise his drive and competitiveness and he has participated in many competitions in subjects like math, chemistry, astronomy, physics, history and even beekeeping. He reads voraciously. History is his favorite subject in school. But he's physically active too. He likes sports and plays on a basketball team. He'd like to learn to play American football. He also plays the trumpet and participates in a marching band. He enjoys family time and is especially close to his grandmother. Irenej is looking forward to discovering a new culture and language.

Meet Laura
from Italy

Gender: Female
Age (at arrival): 16 years
Program length: Year

Laura is a very diligent and outgoing person, who likes to meet new people. Her parents add that she is sunny, optimistic, and autonomous. Laura prides herself on being able to think for herself and doesn't let outside negative factors influence her. Laura enjoys sports and used to belong to a volleyball team for several years. Due to academic commitments, she had to quit the team. Now after school, when homework is finished, she likes to workout by doing aerobic gymnastics at the gym. It's Laura's dream to travel the world and experience lots of different cultures when she is older!
